

WE LEAD AMBASSADOR

MAGUY TÉCHER

DIRECTOR OF WORLD
LANGUAGE, POLICY & TITLE III,
WAYNE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS, NC

WHY ARE YOU A WE LEAD AMBASSADOR?

I said “yes” to becoming a We Lead Ambassador because I believe leadership is about empowering others and fostering possibilities for women to lead with purpose. In our increasingly global and culturally diverse world, women have the power to build bridges, embrace differences, and create meaningful connections. Together, we can inspire positive change—locally, nationally, and globally.

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Dr. Maguy Técher serves as the Director of World Languages, Policy & Title III for Wayne County Public Schools (WCPS). She leads the Mandarin Chinese program through DoDEA and coordinates the Spanish and Spanish for Heritage Speakers programs. She actively works with students pursuing the Seal of Biliteracy in Spanish, French, Arabic, and Mandarin Chinese. She provides guidance and resources to multilingual students, ESL teachers, migrant students and families, and international teachers, while also overseeing district policy development and implementation.

Dr. Técher holds degrees from Université Paris X in France, Universidad Complutense de Madrid in Spain, and Gardner-Webb University. She is married to Dr. Richard House and is the proud mother of two wonderful sons, Bobby and Nicholas.

PERSONAL LEADERSHIP BELIEF

“I believe leadership begins with empowering people—both staff and students—to recognize their strengths, embrace their potential, and achieve their goals.”
